UNIVERSITY "UKSHIN HOTI" PRIZREN

FACULTY OF LAW

About the University

University "Ukshin Hoti" in Prizren (UUHP), was established by decision no. 01/87 of the Government of the Republic of Kosovo on 09.10.2009 as the second public University in the Republic of Kosovo which started with the first generation of students in the academic year 2009/10, respectively on 01.10.2010.

University "Ukshin Hoti" in Prizren with its six academic units currently offers studies in bachelor and master, while based on the statute it can also organize doctoral studies.

Faculty of Law

The Faculty of Law of UUHP offers studies in the bachelor-General Law program with a duration of 4 years (240 ECTS). This program offered by the Faculty of Law at UUHP aims at the theoretical and practical training of students through professional legal education in the field of law, contributing to the further development of judicial, scientific and professional system in our country and beyond. The study program is in accordance with European standards of higher education.

Throughout the study period, the studies are theoretical, but the faculty also offers clinical legal courses within the bachelor study program. Students are enabled to materialize their theoretical knowledge through practice in the institutions of the justice system and other central and local institutions.

Learning objectives

The objectives of this study program consist in the acquisition of professional knowledge which is achieved through general basic education for the formation of students as future professionals to practice their activity within the legal system as lawyer, notary, enforcement agent, prosecutor, judge, etc.

The bachelor program offers opportunities to concretize theoretical knowledge through clinical legal courses which are part of the curriculum and are lectured and demonstrated through practical case simulations by law experts in collaboration with students. For this purpose, the Faculty of Law has a courtroom.

International cooperation

University "Ukshin Hoti" University in Prizren has cooperation with several universities in Germany, Sweden, Norway, Austria, Albania, Turkey, Poland and others.
